"A stitch in time saves nine" is not more true in mending clothes, than in getting farm stock through the winter.

Concord Grape Vines. For sale very cheap by H. W. BARTLETT.

JOHNSON, TOWNSEND & CO. Chew JACKSON'S BEST Sweet Navy Tobacco.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Young,

Brigham Young's Nineteenth Wife, The most popular female lecturer in the field, will lecture at the M. E. Church, in Troy, ON FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 25th.

She is meeting with wonderful success as a lecturer, drawing full houses wherever she goes, and giving the highest satisfaction. Do not miss the only opportunity that may offer to hear her.

Admission, 40 cents. Tickets for sale at the drug stores. Lecture to begin at 8 o'clock.

Glorious list of May!—Watson ahead—sheet and pillow-case Party and Lunch.

The enterprising lady citizens of Watson do not intend to drop a good work, when once started, and have again put their shoulders to the wheel, and have turned it over this time in favor of a grand sheet and pillow-case dance and lunch, to be given at the school hall, Watson, May 1st, 1879.

The stock is inexhaustible, new goods being added to this department daily. The people of Doniphan County should take notice.

J. W. BAILEY, 215 and 220 Third Street, St. Joseph, just above the Pacific Hotel.

Is daily receiving his new spring stock, and is now fully prepared in all departments (wholesale and retail) to supply the trade with merchandise of all kinds cheap for cash.

He has distributed the past week thousands upon thousands of useful household articles at the uniform price of five cents. People have gone away delighted with their bargains.

They have spread the news among their friends, who in turn have quickly come and duplicated the purchases. The stock is inexhaustible, new goods being added to this department daily.

The Atchison Patriot publishes a story about John Thomas, an old resident in the vicinity of Iowa City, being found lying on his floor insensible, his head having been struck by a blow on the head, and robbed him of $500.

Mr. Thomas had been sick, and had fallen and bruised himself, but that he had heard, on Saturday, that he was improving, and was able to be about. He thinks that if anything of the kind had happened, he would have heard of it.

Mrs. R. Locke visits the ladies of Troy and vicinity, that she has one of the finest stocks of Millinery goods that ever came to Troy, and will be sold at St. Joe. prices. Hats trimmed from 25 cents up to $7.00.

Excellent No. one Bonnets, of the latest style; also, Ribbons, Veilings, and everything in Millinery line. Please call and see my goods, before you purchase.

Mrs. R. Locke, 215 and 220 Third Street, St. Joseph, just above the Pacific Hotel.

White Cloud Church-Chow. Notwithstanding the impression that the peach buds have been killed, still, if every blossom should produce a peach, it would worry people to get away with the crop.

Mr. David Stanley has purchased the house and lot of Clark Fowler, and also the adjoining lot of Dr. Pugsley.

Mr. William Winkler, one of White Cloud's old men, was found dead in the road, about a mile below Forest City, last Friday afternoon.

He had been at the Iowa Point ferry, was attacked by some kind of an unknown stroke, which proved fatal. He was interred in the White Cloud cemetery, Sunday.

The Nelly Pick, another mountain steamer, bound for Fort Snelling, steamed past at a rapid rate, last Tuesday morning.

The society of the M. E. Church have purchased the house of Wm. Fairall, with the intention of fitting it up as a parsonage, and Mr. Fairall is getting material on the ground for a suburban residence in the western part of town.

John S. Hook commenced making brick at his yard near the railroad, last Saturday noon. Mr. Hook has taken contracts for making several hundred thousand bricks, the coming season, the present kiln at which he is working, being for John Lyons.

Mauck & Bro. have been busy engaged, the present week, in shipping out to Wylie Moore, which he has had stored in his warehouse on the levee.

There is perhaps as much activity in the industrial pursuits of our city as within any time during several years. Mechanics appear to have their hands full, and there seems to be a steady demand for skilled labor in general.

JOHNSON, TOWNSEND & CO. If you are suffering with Cough, Cold, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Consumption, loss of voice, tickling in the throat, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs, use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.

This is the great remedy that is causing so much excitement by its wonderful cures, curing the cases of helpless cases. Over one million bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery have been used within the last year, and have given perfect satisfaction in every instance.

We have received and placed on our counter, this week, one of the largest and best assortments of nickel goods ever brought west, and we respectfully ask you to call and examine, and make your selections.

JOHNSON, TOWNSEND & CO. O. O. F. ANNIVERSARY.—The Odd Fellows of Highland will celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of the establishment of the Order in the United States, on Saturday, the 26th inst. Judge Price, of Troy, and R. A. Sawyer, of Highland, will deliver addresses.

The White Cloud and Severance Bands will furnish the music. A large gathering is anticipated, and a good time.

Severance Items.

Most of the farmers are nearly done corn planting. W. H. H. Curtis was chosen President of the City Council, B. F. Harper, Treasurer, A. B. Ford, Clerk, George Moore, Marshal.

Mr. May and Dr. Long shipped, on last Friday, twelve car loads of cattle and two of hogs to the Chicago market. The cattle were the finest lot that have been shipped from here this year.

A Saint of this neighborhood met with another accident, last week. The gun burst, tearing off the portion of his arm. It seems as if even the Saints are not safe with guns. They had better take warning by this.

Prof. John Wetzel has moved from here to Atchison, where he goes to take charge of a singing class. The herd law is being agitated again by some mostly by men that have no interest themselves. The best way is to let it stand as the law now is. If it is brought up again, we may expect it every year.

One of our railroad men came near meeting with a misfortune, a few days ago. His wife procured some of the beautiful grounds, by putting up a good substantial arch. When completed, it will be one of the finest in the County. It will be a fine place to pass a hot summer evening.

Wm. Jordan, John Young, and others, started, Saturday, for the land of gold and silver. They go with teams and expect to stop in Leadville in twenty-four days from starting.

Once more our druggists were too sharp for the likely life-destroyer. If he don't kill himself, it is likely he will give certain parties trouble.

Frank Case has found out that Leona is no place for him to do business, so he has moved his shop from there to this place, where he enjoys a good trade.

As I have combined my two shops in one, and am determined to furnish my customers with a full line of goods at very bottom prices, for cash, I cordially invite your patronage. My stock of Fifty sets of harness, very low. The largest assortment of whips ever in Doniphan County. Collars of the latest styles, from fifty cents to three dollars. Come and see me. All work warranted to be made from Pittsburgh chestnut oak tanned leather. Also, a full line of all kinds of harness, and all kinds of harness, very low.

W. E. Foster sells the Champion machine—the most durable, the lightest draught, easiest managed and simplest machine in the market. It will outwear your mother-in-law.

Just received at our yards, a car-load of fresh line, for spring trade. All parties wanting any thing in this line, will find it to their interest to first call and learn our best rock prices.
